Difference Bounds Matrix: normal form (1/2)

- May different sets of inequalities represent the same set of solutions?
  - Some constraints may be implied by the combination of other constraints
  - The same set of solutions can be represented by different coefficients b_{ij}

- A normal form is introduced where each coefficient b_{ij} is maximally tight (i.e., it cannot be reduced without changing the set of solutions)